

idfx

INSPIRATION FOR INTERIOR DESIGN PROFESSIONALS

www.idfxmagazine.com

THE FUTURE FOR FURNITURE

Will 2010 be a good year for interiors?

STORAGE FOCUS

Products, projects and profiles

Screen Sirens

Divide and conquer with our choice of the latest screens

DECEMBER 2009 / £4.99

12 >

9 771462 061038

SHOW OFFS

These cabinets make a statement while keeping precious collections in their place

1 This polished aluminium tallboy by Paul Kelley is made from Polyrey aluminium laminates and mahogany. www.pk-designs.co.uk 2 The red anodised aluminium FP storage console, created by French designer Martin Szekeley, is available from Galerie Kreo in Paris. Each piece, in a limited edition of eight, is numbered and signed. www.galeriekreo.com 3 German company Woodloops has created Maze from Forestry Stewardship Council-certified cherrywood. Designed by René Mueller and Nina Griesshammer, the cabinet's shelves are ideal for storing CDs. www.woodloops.de 4 Jaime Hayon and Nienke Klunder have collaborated to make this Disney-esque New York Meets Miami cabinet. The highly lacquered pine and bevelled glass piece is one of eight. www.nienkeklunder.com www.hayonstudio.com 5 These Crop sculptural containers by Spanish designer Nacho Carbonell are made from a mixture of corn resin, barley, wheat and oats with steel rod reinforcements. www.nachocarbonell.com 6 Boca do Lobo's Guggenheim cabinet is shown here in rosewood and palisander. The interior shelving is intended for storing linens in the bedroom or glasses in the dining room. www.bocadolobo.com